JANET Acceptable Rules of Use

(More information on JANET can be found on the JANET and UKERNA website.)

JANET may NOT be used for any of the following:

- the creation or transmission (other than for properly supervised and lawful research purposes) of any offensive, obscene or indecent images, data or other material, or any data capable of being resolved into obscene or indecent images or material;
- the creation or transmission of material which is designed or likely to cause annoyance, inconvenience or needless anxiety;
- the creation or transmission of defamatory material;
- the transmission of material such that this infringes the copyright of another person;
- the transmission of unsolicited commercial or advertising material either to other User Organisations, or to organisations connected to other networks, save where that material is embedded within, or is otherwise part of, a service to which the member of the user organisation has chosen to subscribe;
- deliberate unauthorised access to facilities or services accessible via JANET;
- deliberate activities with any of the following characteristics:
 - wasting staff effort or networked resources including time on end systems accessible via JANET and the effort of staff involved in the support of those systems;
 - corrupting or destroying other users' data;
 - violating the privacy of other users;
 - disrupting the work of other users.
