INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

This programme offers placement opportunities managed by the Graduate Gateway team at the University of London.

We place students into internships for organisations of all shapes and sizes: from start-ups to large multinationals; covering positions in sales and marketing through to IT and scientific research; and in the private, public and voluntary sectors.

Our aim is to provide a wide range of opportunities for students together with personal and high quality recruitment solutions for employers.

ABOUT THE INTERNSHIPS

- All internships and opportunities are paid
- Broad range of exciting and challenging work experience opportunities
- Full-time, part-time and summer placements
- Placements can range from 2-12 weeks in duration
- Project based opportunities with strong development focus
- Most placements are offered to finalists and take place during the summer vacation.

BENEFITS

- Practical graduate level work experience
- Enhance your CV
- Advice and support available throughout the placement
- Potential for permanent job

WHAT YOU NEED TO DO

- Complete the College sign up form to register your interest and indicate your sector preferences
- Get your CV up to date. These placements are very competitive so you will need a good CV. Book an appointment with one of our career consultants through Helios: <http://helios.heythrop.ac.uk/course/view.php?id=1721#section-1>
- The University of London Gateway Team will send you opportunities via email. Apply as directed. You will need to apply promptly as there is usually only a day or two turn round for these placements.
- If you are unsuccessful the Gateway Team will give you feedback. Use our careers consultants to improve your next application.

WHAT PAST INTERNS SAY

"Immediately I was accepted into the team and treated as such. I was given a lot of responsibility and was expected to deliver. Most importantly, I was given a really good support structure that meant delivering on my objectives was a whole lot easier."

"The projects I eventually started working on weren't too different to what I had hoped to be doing and the team I was working with were very helpful."

"Both the application and interview processes were very straightforward. Once my CV was received by the careers group, I was promptly contacted and given detailed information about the role and the progression possibility it presents."

"Even for someone with experience, getting a foot in the door can be quite difficult and internships are a perfect way to do that."
